

Our Lady of the Valley Catholic School

Where Faith & Knowledge Grow

Catholic Schools
Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.

From Mrs. Lund: Thank you to the families that spoke at each of the Masses this past weekend in kicking off Catholic School's week: Sacred Heart: Casey Campbell, Daniel Hsu, Jessica Jachimiec. St. Michael's: Gerteisen Family, Hennemann family, Cler family. Our Lady of the Lake: Maixner family. OLV certainly appreciates all the enthusiasm for Catholic Education.

Thank you to the Maixner family for partaking in fundraising for Fr. Scott's Mission by having a bake sale at Our Lady of the Lake. The extra $150 raised, on top of the $1,400 made at the bake sale at Sacred Heart, is greatly appreciated by Fr. Scott as he is able to purchase a new radio for his plane.

Monday, 1/27 Opening Mass at Our Lady of Guadalupe Co-Cathedral was well represented with our students and many of our parents. The OLV leaders at Mass were as follows:

Kyrie Leaders: Regan, Phoebe, Mario, Alessandra, Daniel Hennemann, Jonah Cler.

Hand Chimes: Edward, Henry, Ethan, Jasmine, Asha, Mario,

Hospitality, Rogue

Cross Bearer/Altar Server: Jonah Trouy

Psalm 98 singer: Josephine

Prayers of Intercession: Branson

Artifact presenter: Daniel Hsu

A great big thank you to all the drivers that spent the whole day with our students as they participated in outreach music ministry at the Providence Cancer Hospital & the Blessed Sacrament Monastery.

The traveling Spanish Choir sang several songs in Spanish and performed three songs with the hand chimes. The children also delivered several bags of groceries to the nine sisters that live at the monastery. Spanish Choir Members: Ethan, Emma, Mario, Jasmine, Henry, Edward, Alessandra, Adriana, Rosemary, Josephine, Mabyn, Grace, Phoebe, Asha, Sammy, Daisy

Father Joseph has asked OLV students to sing this next Sunday 2/2, at the Wasilla American Legion Post #35 in the Remembrance of the USS Dorchester. Father Joseph will represent the Catholic Priest in the Saga of the Four Chaplains that were aboard the Dorchester during World War 11. The performance is at 1:00. Please let Mrs. Lund know if your child is able to attend.
